

CALLING ALL MYSTERY READERS!

I would like to invite any parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, babysitters, mentors, coaches, or other special people to surprise our class by being a “Mystery Reader” at some point during the school year. We LOVE having visitors share in our learning by reading a favorite story aloud to our class. Plus, the students benefit greatly from the opportunity to appropriately interact with another adult in the classroom.

Mystery Readers will visit our classroom on Friday mornings from 10:30- 11:00 AM.

Readers will be responsible for choosing and bringing the book that they would like to read to the class, and have the option of bringing a special snack and/or activity to share (this is fun, but definitely not required!)

Please visit the “Links for Learning/Parent Resources” tab on our class website (mrnelsonsfirstgrade.weebly.com) and fill out the “Mystery Reader Sign-up” form ASAP to choose a date that works for you!

I will fill the dates on a first-come, first-served basis and will confirm with you via email.

REMINDER: Please keep this event a top secret from the kids. It will be a big surprise every time we have a special guest appear! 😊

Thanks for your involvement in our classroom.
I can't wait to meet our 2013-2014 Mystery Readers!
